

Accommodation guarantee

Postgraduate students

The University guarantees to provide an offer of accommodation for new full-time postgraduate students during their first year of study who meet the following conditions:

- pay fees at the overseas rate,
- apply by 1 August 2016,
- come to the University alone,
- have received and firmly accepted an offer of a place of study (unconditional or conditional offers),
- are new, full-time students in their first year of study at the University of Bristol,
- will start their studies by 21 September 2016,
- are here for a full academic year.

The guarantee does not apply to students who:

- pay fees at the home rate,
- miss the application deadline,
- have previously studied at the University of Bristol,
- are accompanied by their partners or family. Please see our couple and family accommodation.

Non-guaranteed postgraduate applicants

If you don't meet the criteria of the above accommodation guarantee, you may still be able to apply for accommodation. For further information please see the accommodation guidance for non-guaranteed postgraduate applicants.
