

Egypt Society of Bristol

The Egypt Society of Bristol (ESB) was founded in 1998 to provide a focus for all those in Bristol and the surrounding areas who are interested in the land of the Nile. It offers lectures, social events and study visits to places of Egyptological interest at home and abroad - including Egypt itself.

Lectures are usually held approximately every six weeks between October and June on the campus of the University of Bristol, and are given by acknowledged experts from both the UK and abroad.

If you are interested, please see overleaf for more details and a membership form.

* The hieroglyphs at the top write the name of the Society in Ancient Egyptian: Semayt Kemet ent Bristol
