Public Services
Programme
Quality, Performance & Delivery

How public services are managed, and how their management affects public service outcomes, will come under increasing scrutiny as budgets are squeezed through the 2010s by national and local governments. This one-day workshop will consider evidence on the effects of alternative management practices across a range of public service contexts, including hospitals, children's services and not-for-profit organisations.

Confirmed speakers

Rhys Andrews and George Boyne (Cardiff Business School)

Local Government Reorganisation and Public Service Performance: Does the Process Affect the Product?

Graeme Currie (Nottingham University Business School)

and Leroy White (University of Bristol)

*Organising and managing for the delivery of joined up public services:
