Celebrating your support

Giving Circles at the University of Bristol

The University of Bristol was built on the extraordinary support and philanthropic gifts of our founding benefactors. Today and in recent years, your generosity continues this legacy of philanthropy, which helps to shape and support Bristol’s ambitions for the future.

You are part of an inspirational community of philanthropists who are enabling ground-breaking research, solving global challenges and enriching lives.

Complementing our widely supported Bristol Pioneers programme, our Giving Circles are a lasting record of those individuals, charitable trusts, foundations and companies who have made exceptional gifts to the University. These Giving Circles enable us to recognise and celebrate your support.

The Sir Winston Churchill Philanthropic Circle

For donors who have committed over £5 million to the University

Sir Winston Churchill, our longest serving Chancellor (1929-1965), Nobel Laureate (Literature 1953) and Prime Minister, lends his name to our most prestigious Giving Circle. He understood our ambition to make a better life for the world in which we live. We are pleased to recognise those whose landmark gifts will be crucial in realising our bold ambition for the future.
