Welcome Week Additional Information

If you have any questions please come and visit the Student Services Office, Room 1.07/1.08 35 Berkeley Square. The office is open from 9AM to 5PM Monday to Friday.

Library Self-Guided Tours - Students are encouraged to explore the Education Library (Ground Floor, 35 Berkeley Square) using the self-directed tours.- please collect the handout available from the library. Alternatively if you cannot come in, there is a new virtual tour online: <https://virtu.co/scenes/education-library>

Local Area Self Guided Walk – Follow a map which will take you to some interesting local places in Bristol.

Student Status Letters & Bank Letters & Council Tax Exemption – The Faculty of Social Sciences and Law Office will be able to produce student status and bank letters for you once you have completed faculty/school registration in Welcome Week. You can request a certification letter, bank letter or council tax certificate (for full-time students applying for Council Tax exemption/reduction) from the Faculty of Social Sciences and Law Online Shop: http://shop.bris.ac.uk/product-catalogue/faculty-of-social-sciences-and-law. You will receive an email when the document(s) is available for collection / has been posted. For further details please see the Faculty of Social Sciences and Law webpage: <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/fssl/official-documents/>
A note regarding Council Tax Exemption - For the majority of students, your eligibility for Council Tax exemption will be confirmed with Bristol City Council electronically three times a year. You can view the date your details were last confirmed to Bristol City Council in Studentinfo https://www.bris.ac.uk/studentinfo/ under your Term Address (see 'Last Notification Date to Bristol City Council'). Therefore, you should only need a council tax certificate from the Faculty if you are not resident within the Bristol City Council.

Please note that the Faculty of Social Sciences and Law Office is situated in 2 Priory Road (First Floor), BS81TX. Please see directional map below on how to get there from the School of Education
