Moll joined the University as a Junior Secretary in the Communications Division at B grade. She worked her way up to an H grade PA role. Whilst working in this position, she volunteered to help with web work and took internal and external courses to develop and improve her web skills. Moll has now secured an H grade role within the web team.