Welcome, students from Hong Kong

An international community
The University of Bristol is friendly, exciting and diverse, with one in four of our students coming from outside the UK. More than 300 students from Hong Kong study here, and we would love for you to join us.

A world of opportunities
International societies are a great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our student clubs include the Hong Kong Society and HKPASS (Hong Kong Public Affairs and Social Service Society), and over 400 more for different interests and hobbies.

A diverse city
The city of Bristol is home to people from 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. East Asian food is widely available. A friendly, safe city with historic and quirky British culture, Bristol offers an amazing student experience.

Inspirational alumni
Our international network of over 150,000 alumni includes more than 2,500 graduates from or living in Hong Kong, who are employed at organisations including PwC, Bank of China (Hong Kong), Allen and Overy, and universities around Hong Kong.

‘I love Bristol because of its combination of city and country vibes. There is never a dull moment in the city – I am constantly discovering new and interesting things to do, and I am nowhere near finished!’

English language requirements
If your first language is not English, we will require proof of your English language ability. Different courses need different language levels; specific English language requirements are listed on individual course pages online.

We offer pre-sessional courses and an International Foundation Programme to develop your academic English and prepare you for study in the UK. Find out more at bristol.ac.uk/english-language.

Scholarships
The University of Bristol Hong Kong Alumni offer a scholarship each year for a student from Hong Kong to take a taught master’s programme. We also offer Aviva Scholarships. Find out more at bristol.ac.uk/international-scholarships.
