An international community
The University of Bristol is friendly, exciting and diverse, with one in four of our students coming from outside the UK. Nearly 400 students from Malaysia study here, and we would love for you to join us.

A world of opportunities
International societies are a great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our student clubs include the Malaysian and Singaporean Students’ Association, the Malay Cultural Society, and over 400 more for different interests and hobbies.

A diverse city
The city of Bristol is home to people from 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. South-east Asian food is widely available. A friendly, safe city with historic and quirky British culture, Bristol offers an amazing student experience.

Inspirational alumni
Our international network of over 150,000 alumni includes more than 1,500 students from Malaysia, who are employed at companies including Rolls-Royce, PwC, Exxon Mobil, ARUP and HSBC.

‘What makes Bristol special is the food and people! You will find something that you enjoy doing here, be it societies, volunteering or sports. The community is very supportive, and Bristol’s Careers Service is fantastic.’

English language requirements

If your first language is not English, we will require proof of your English language ability. Different courses need different language levels; specific English language requirements are listed on individual course pages online. Students may be eligible for IELTS exemptions based on SPM/1119/iGCSE/A-levels/IB English.

We offer pre-sessional courses and an International Foundation Programme to develop your academic English and prepare you for study in the UK. Find out more at bristol.ac.uk/english-language.

Scholarships

In addition to University of Bristol scholarships, past Malaysian students have also been sponsored by PETRONAS, Shell, CIMB, Chevening, MARA and the Ministry of Education. Find out more about funding opportunities at bristol.ac.uk/international-scholarships.
