An international community
The University of Bristol is friendly, exciting and diverse, with one in four of our students coming from outside the UK. More than 50 students from Nigeria study here, and we would love for you to join us.

A world of opportunities
Societies are a great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our student clubs include the African Caribbean Society and over 400 more for different interests and hobbies.

A diverse city
The city of Bristol is home to people from 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. International food is widely available. A friendly, safe city with historic and quirky British culture, Bristol offers an amazing student experience.

Inspirational alumni
Our international network of over 150,000 alumni, who are employed at companies across the world, includes more than 500 graduates from or living in Nigeria.

‘Bristol was one of the few universities that satisfied my criteria of being a world top 50 university for engineering, offering integrated master’s courses, and being in a fairly large city. So I was happy to be accepted here. Electrical engineers are in high demand in the UK, so as an international student this opens a lot of doors for me.’
