Welcome, students from Hong Kong

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has an international reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise
Bristol is home to 6 faculties, made up of 29 academic schools and departments. We offer more than 600 undergraduate and postgraduate courses across a comprehensive range of subjects.

An international community
Bristol is home to nearly 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates, with around one in four of our students coming from outside the UK.

More than 300 students from Hong Kong currently study here, and we would love for you to join us.

A diverse city
Bristol is a friendly, safe city with a rich history and distinctive culture. The city is truly multicultural, home to people from 187 countries, speaking 91 languages. There is a range of shops and restaurants where food from East Asia is available, as well as many other global cuisines.

A world of opportunities
You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at the Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our student clubs include the Hong Kong Society, HKPASS (Hong Kong Public Affairs and Social Service Society) and over 400 more for different interests and hobbies.

Inspirational alumni
Our international alumni network includes more than 2,000 students from or living in Hong Kong, who are employed at organisations including HSBC, Alaya Consulting Limited, Hang Seng Bank, the Hong Kong Government and PwC.

‘Bristol is an amazing city because there is so much to do: nightlife, sightseeing and much more. My personal tutor helped me secure an internship with a researcher over the summer, and the University sends regular information about careers events.’
