

WELCOME, STUDENTS FROM KENYA

Founded in 1876, the University of Bristol has a global reputation for high-quality education and research.

Wide-ranging expertise

The University offers over 600 undergraduate and postgraduate degrees across a wide range of subjects.

An international community

Bristol is home to over 30,000 undergraduates and postgraduates. Around 28% of our students come from outside the UK.

We have around 50 students from Kenya currently studying here, and would love for you to join us.

A diverse city

Bristol is a friendly, vibrant place with a distinctive culture and rich history. Our multicultural city is home to people from more than 187 countries, speaking 91 languages.

A world of opportunities

You can celebrate cultural events, share experiences and connect with students from around the world at Bristol's Global Lounge.

Societies are another great way to meet like-minded friends and share your culture with others. Our 350+ student clubs include the African & Caribbean Society, East African Society, International Students' Network and many more.

Inspirational alumni

Our international alumni network includes more than 350 graduates in Kenya. Past Bristol students are employed at organisations including Burberry, DNB Bank, Save the Children and prestigious universities around the world.
