Self-Archiving using Rights Retention

Check library's Read and Publish Deals webpages.

Your Journal or funder is not excluded from the deal

Check with Library Research Services, but you may need to choose a different journal to publish in.

Submit to the journal, and include the following statement in your submission, your cover letter, and the Funding Acknowledgement section of your research:

"This research was funded, in whole or in part, by Horizon Europe [Grant number]. A CC BY or equivalent licence is applied to the AAM arising from this submission, in accordance with the grant's open access conditions."

During Peer Review, keep a copy of every new draft, to ensure you have a copy of your Author's Accepted Manuscript

Upload your Author's Accepted Manuscript to Pure

Your work is now Open Access and compliant with the Horizon Europe Open Access Policy

Select another venue for publication.

If the Publisher asks what licence you want, select CC-BY

If the publisher asks you for payment, follow the instructions in the email the library sent you

Once accepted for publication, add a record to Pure

You will need to select a different Open Access Route
