

Three Interlinked Interdisciplinary Workshops: May – June 2009

Critical Geographies of Security

New Perspectives on Control, Counter-Hegemony and South-South Realignments

Department of Politics, Univ. of Bristol, 10 Priory Road, Bristol BS8 1TU

Contact: t.carver@bristol.ac.uk to reserve a place in advance, please

Website for presenter details, abstracts, information & materials: www.bristol.ac.uk/politics/cssn/

With Professor Paul E. Amar, Research Fellow in Critical Security Studies
The Richard Hodder-Williams Visiting Professor in Politics for 2008/9

WORKSHOP 1: The Rise of the Rescue Industry

Remaking Police and Military, Gender and Empire for 'Human Security' Interventions

Wednesday, 6 May 2009, 1100 to 1730

WORKSHOP 2: Political Geographies of Security

Ethnography, Space, Culture

Wednesday, 20 May 2009, 1100 to 1730 & Thursday, 21 May 2009, 0930 to 1530

WORKSHOP 3: Beyond Neo-Liberalism?

South-South Realignments and New Agendas for Political Research

Brazil, Iran, Russia, India, Dubai, China

Wednesday, 3 June 2009, 1100 to 1730 & Thursday, 4 June 2009, 0930 to 1530

Politics
and International Relations at Bristol

