Application process
Online application
Applicants will be asked to provide a piece of written work as part of their application.

Applicants should complete the online application form, uploading all required documents directly into the application form. Guidance on uploading documents can be found in the How to Apply FAQs.

Applicants should make every effort to choose the correct programme in the application form by reading the prospectus entry and admissions statements fully. Applicants should contact the relevant Admissions Team if clarification is required.

Application Deadline
There is an application deadline for this programme, which is displayed on the individual programme page within the University course finder.

Required documents
All documents must be translated into English. Degree certificates and transcripts should be certified copies and list subjects taken and grades/degrees achieved. If your degree is not yet complete, please provide transcripts of subjects taken and marks achieved to date. All documents must be uploaded into the online application form unless otherwise noted. Applicants who have already submitted an application can upload additional documents into the ‘Post-submission uploads’ section. You can find information about how to upload documents to your application form in our How to Apply FAQs.

Required documents for this programme are:
Two academic references
Degree certificate(s) from first and subsequent degrees
Academic transcript(s) from your first and subsequent degrees
Personal statement
English language certificates if English is not your native language and your undergraduate degree was not in an English-speaking country (please see the English Language Requirements for a list of English-speaking countries)
Piece of written work in support of your application

A curriculum vitae (CV) is not required but can help your application. You can include details of other relevant qualifications to assist with your application. Please do not include any school (pre-university) certificates.

Interviews
Interviews are not part of the selection process for this programme.

Correspondence with applicants
Applicants will normally receive communication via email to the email address used to set up their application form account. Applicants should ensure that this profile email address is kept up-to-date.

Admissions criteria

Academic entry requirements
Applicants should have attained an upper second-class qualification (or international equivalent). Applications from all disciplines will be considered. Non-traditional qualifications/routes may, exceptionally, also be considered where appropriate.

For information on international equivalent qualifications, please see our International Office website.

English language criteria for non-native English speakers
For applicants whose first language is not English, it is necessary to achieve a minimum score in an approved English language test specified in Profile A of the University's English Language Requirements Policy.

You can find information about the University of Bristol's Pre-Sessional English courses at the Centre for English Language and Foundation Studies website.

Reference criteria
Applicants should arrange for referees to provide electronic references, which can be submitted through the online application system. Non-electronic references should be on headed paper, with clear contact details and signed by the person who wrote it. References should either be submitted directly by the referee using the online reference form, or submitted directly by the applicant.

Personal statement criteria
A clear and persuasive explanation as to why the programme has been chosen and the applicant’s ability to engage with the specific nature of the programme at Bristol (approx 500 words).

Additional requirements
All applicants must provide a written piece of work as part of their application. This can be either an essay on any literary topic that you wrote as part of your course, or a commentary on a set poem. Further details can be found in the English Literature supplementary section of the online application form.

Selection process and offers

Selection process
All applications are considered in accordance with the University's policy on equality and diversity. The University of Bristol upholds the principles of equality and diversity, respect and dignity. Candidates are not discriminated against on the grounds of race, ethnicity, nationality, gender, sexuality, religion or belief, disability, health or age.

Once a complete application has been submitted, which includes all required information, it is considered by the Programme Director and/or Admissions officer. All postgraduate admissions are subject to approval by the Faculty Graduate Education Director. Applications are considered against selection criteria, which include:

- academic achievement
- academic references
- personal statement
- consideration of piece of written work

Decisions
Applicants will be notified by email when a decision has been made and decision letters will be available to view and print by logging into their application. If there is a deadline by which applicants must accept their offer of admission, this will be stated in the offer letter.

Deferrals
Deferrals are not permitted for this programme.

Deposits
International self-funded students are required to pay a deposit of £1000. You can pay this deposit online at: http://bris.ac.uk/online-payments/deposits using a credit or debit card. Alternatively you can pay through our PaytoStudy account at www.bristol.ac.uk/paytostudy. PaytoStudy is an international payment solution which offers competitive exchange rates. Where PaytoStudy has a local bank account, all wire fee charges will be eliminated and you will be able to pay in your local currency to a local bank account.

The deposit is non-transferable and non-refundable except under the circumstances outlined in the International Deposits Refund Policy which is available at: http://www.bris.ac.uk/academicregistry/office/policies/idrp.html.

You may pay your deposit in advance of meeting the conditions of your offer. If you subsequently fail to meet the conditions attached to your offer and are therefore rejected from your course on academic grounds then a refund will be made to you. To make the payment you will need your student number which you will find in your offer letter.

ATAS
An ATAS certificate is not required.
