Admissions criteria
Academic requirements
Applicants for this programme must have completed the Teach First PGCE programme and be enrolled on the Teach First Leadership Development Programme (LDP)

For entry to the programme, you must provide the following:

- transcript of your undergraduate degree results and Teach First PGCE transcript;
- a supporting reference from your employing school;
- a supporting academic reference (preferably from your subject/professional tutor on the Teach First PGCE programme);
personal statement, which should outline why you have chosen to apply for this programme and your educational and professional background.

For information on international equivalent qualifications, please see our International Office website.

Application process

Online application form
Applicants should complete the online application form, uploading all required documents directly into the application form. Guidance on uploading documents can be found in the How to Apply FAQs. Any paper documents received by post, or electronic documents received by email, will not be considered except in exceptional circumstances.

Applicants should make every effort to choose the correct programme in the application form by reading the prospectus entry and admissions statements fully. Applicants should contact the relevant Admissions Team if clarification is required.

Documents required
The required documents for this programme are listed below. Applications may not be considered until all required documents have been uploaded to the application form.

Applicants who have already submitted an application can upload additional documents into the ‘Post-submission uploads’ section of the application form. Information about how to upload documents to an application form can be found in our How to Apply FAQs.

Required documents for this programme are:

- References: We require a supporting reference from your employing school and a supporting academic reference (preferably from your Subject/Professional Tutor on the Teach First PGCE programme.
- Personal statement: Personal statement, which should outline why you have chosen to apply for this programme, as well as your educational and professional background (Maximum 300 words).
- High School (pre-university) certificates: These must be colour scans of original documents or certified copies, as well as certified translations of documents in any language other than English.

Correspondence with applicants
Applicants will receive communication via email to the email address used to set up the application form account. Applicants should ensure the profile email address is kept up-to-date.

Selection process

Assessment of applications
All applications are considered in accordance with the University’s policy on equality and diversity. The University of Bristol upholds the principles of equality and diversity, respect and dignity. Candidates are not discriminated against on the grounds of race, ethnicity, nationality, gender, sexuality, religion or belief, disability, health or age.

Once a complete application has been submitted with all required supporting documents, it is considered academic and professional services staff in the School. All applicants are subject to the entry requirements above. We also pay particular attention to your personal statement.

Interviews
Interviews do not normally form part of the selection process. However, it may be deemed necessary to interview applicants with non-standard qualifications or who have additional skills and experience to be considered as part of the application process.

The purpose of the interview is to assess whether the applicant currently has the necessary skills and capabilities to pursue the chosen postgraduate programme, and whether the programme is appropriate to the applicant’s interests and aspirations.

If required, interviewees based overseas will normally be interviewed by telephone or Skype.

All interviews are conducted by two members of staff, at least one of whom is trained in fair and effective recruitment techniques. All interviews are undertaken in accordance with the University’s policy on equal opportunities.

Non-standard applications
We welcome applications from those with non-standard qualifications who can demonstrate knowledge, experience and skills developed in the workplace, or elsewhere, relevant to the programme of study. Please use your personal statement to provide further details.

Non-standard applications will be considered by the Admissions Tutor(s) for the programme on a case by case basis.

Decisions
Notification of decisions
Applicants will be notified by email when a decision has been made and decision letters will be available to view and print by logging into the application. If there is a deadline by which applicants must accept an offer of admission, this will be stated in the offer letter.

Offers
Offers will typically be made in line with the academic requirements set out above.

Offers made may be conditional or unconditional. An unconditional offer will be made to successful applicants who have already met the conditions and provided evidence that conditions have been met. Where academic or language requirements have not yet been fulfilled, successful applicants will receive a conditional offer outlining the requirements that must be met.

If an applicant is not selected to receive an offer for the course to which they have originally applied, we may offer the opportunity to be considered for an alternative programme in a related subject area. In such cases applicants will receive an email notification providing any alternative course options and asking whether they wish to be considered for these. It may be necessary for applicants to submit additional documentation in order for the application to be fully considered for an alternative programme. Details of the documentation required can be found in the admissions statement for the relevant programme.

Deferrals
Deferrals are not permitted for this programme.

Additional information
Extenuating Circumstances If your education has been significantly disrupted through health or personal problems, disability or specific difficulties within your studies you can submit an extenuating circumstances form as part of your application.

The information provided on the form will be treated confidentially, and will help us to fairly assess your academic performance in light of your circumstances.
ATAS
An ATAS certificate is not required.

Deposits
International self-funded students accepting a place on a taught postgraduate programme are required to pay a deposit of £1000. Further information is available on how to pay programme deposits. Further information will also be provided in the offer letter to successful applicants.

The deposit is non-transferable and non-refundable except under the circumstances outlined in the International Deposits Refund Policy.

Visa
International students coming to the UK to study full-time must apply for a student visa. Tier 4 student visa guidance notes are available on the University website.

Sponsored Students
Sponsored students are not required to pay the deposit but will need to upload a copy of their sponsorship letter using the 'Post Submission Uploads' section of the online application. Sponsored students will also need to complete and upload the sponsorship authorisation form.
