Theatre Design - Voices of Experience,

Wednesday 13th June 2001, 2.00pm - 5.00pm, Theatre Collection,
Department of Drama, Cantocks Close, Bristol, BS8 1UP. Refreshments

An opportunity to discuss theatre design from the view of the actor, the maker and as a theatre designer. There will be a series of theatre design demonstrations and discussions, based on the theme of Commedia Dell'Arte. Of interest to those with a passion for theatre, especially those seeking a career in this field. Pete Bailie has 10 years experience as an actor, working with the David Glass Ensemble, the Young Vic and the Lyric Hammersmith. He has also taught mask and movement skills at Central School Speech and Drama, Drama Studio and Goldsmiths University.

Steven Gregory is a Costume Consultant and has extensive experience of stage design and designing masks, armour, wings and headresses for theatre, ballet and opera, most notably, Michael Crawford's mask for the premiere of Phantom of the Opera. He has also taught at Central School Speech and Drama and the London College of Fashion.

Ralph Adron studied Theatre Design at Croydon College of Art and the Slade and has worked with Ballet Rambert, the International Theatre Club and the Unicorn Theatre for Children. He has taught theatre design throughout his career and also designs interiors and furniture.
